

Distance Learning Speech/Language Activities

Complete 4 per week.

Call or Facetime one of your grandparents and talk with them for at least 5 minutes.	Send an email to an elderly person in a skilled nursing facility. (email it to me and I will forward it on)	Read a daily news article and highlight any words you don't know.	Play a word game with a family member (like Scrabble, Bananagrams, word search, or online word games)	Read aloud to a younger person in your house for at least 10 minutes.
Read an editorial article and highlight two facts and two opinions.	Sit down to a meal with at least one other family member and talk while you eat (in between bites).	Call or Facetime a friend and talk with them for at least 5 minutes.	Read for 30 minutes.	Listen to an audiobook.
Record yourself saying a tongue twister and email it to me.	Watch an episode or Youtube clip of Big Bang Theory and write down three things Sheldon does that break social expectations.	Go to Language Therapy or Life Skills classroom and complete a worksheet posted by me.	Choose 3 words and write 5 synonyms for each.	Make flashcards for the vocabulary for one of your core classes.
Make your own Kahoot to play with your family or friends (in person or remotely).	Recite the lyrics to a song to your family or audio record it and email it to me.	Read for 30 minutes.	Go for a walk without earbuds and write down everything you hear while you walk.	Follow a recipe to bake or cook a food you've never made yourself before.
Email one of your teachers to ask a question about an activity or assignment (or just to say hello if you don't need help).	Go to "Language Therapy" or "Life Skills" Google classroom and complete a worksheet posted by me.	Make a Venn diagram comparing a day in your life doing distance learning vs a regular school day.	Listen to a podcast.	Write a paragraph about what social expectations have changed during this time of social distancing?