

Lesson 2 - Job Demand

Researching the job market will make your job search more effective. Find out which jobs are in demand, have the largest employment, or are declining.

In this assignment you will be using the “Center of Excellence for Labor Market Research” (<http://www.coeccc.net/Search>) and look up three(3) industries and/or occupations and record some vital information on current and future demand in the Inland Empire.

Complete the tables below as you navigate the web site:
